Homestay

Welcome to Go China Homestay! As Beijing's leading homestay provider, we offer you the chance to stay with a Chinese host family in Beijing and experience the joy and richness of Chinese culture and customs different from you own.

The selected host family will provide you with affordable accommodation, meals and assist you in experiencing the local Chinese way of living and the traditional Chinese culture. Our Chinese homestays are carefully chosen by our agency with much thought in mind; for instance, each family selected is easy to be reached, clean, safe, and friendly with cherished wish to share the home with you.

Our professional homestay advisors will help you in locating a suitable host family. We select from hundreds of excellent host family profiles in order to best meet your request. A perfect match between you and the host family will set up a new friendship and assist you in your learning or career. Let our homestay professionals help you!

In the morning you will see breakfast cooked, join in for a 'youtiao'. Then you see the bustle as people are off to work, leaving their 'siheyuans' in finely pressed clothes. During the day you see the elderly walking through the alley, looking after grandchildren while parents are at work. Afternoon when the school bell rings and the alley is filled with children playing traditional games and doing their homework in front of the family restaurant. Every afternoon a group of elderly men meet for a game of 'majiang', just as they have for many years. As day turns to evening, the alley is filled with the aroma of the restaurants cooking real Chinese food.

If your looking for a unique holiday with a difference, then imagine yourself living in the middle of traditional Hutongs, on your 'Life Experience' holiday with the opportunity to not only see all the great sights that tourists see, you will see them as a local!
